THE CRISIS IN ENGLAND.

When, upon the death of Lord PALMERSTON, Lord JOHN RUSSELL undertook the formation of a Cabinet, it became manifest he was laboring under difficulties quite too formidable for his capacities and the resources at his command. He soon encountered votes in the House of Commons which signified clearly enough the majority of that body were opposed to him. He held on, contrary to established precedent, hoping by management, by the use of patronage, or by a turn in public affairs, to draw some of the Opposition members to his support. In all these calculations he was disappointed. Every month increased the numbers and compactness of his opponents.

Lord JOHN RUSSELL has not, indeed, first class powers, but is, nevertheless a man of more than ordinary abilities. What he chiefly lacks is that knowledge of men and things which is of chiefest importance in a statesman.

Mr. GLADSTONE, on the contrary, is a man of first-class powers; but he has defects of temper which detract from his usefulness and efficiency as a parliamentary leader.

While Lord JOHN RUSSELL pledged himself to an extension of the suffrage, to a moderate degree, it became evident he could not depend on the support of several of the great houses attached to the whig and liberal parties. However, they might consent to the theory on which the Reform Bill was framed, when it was reduced to a practical matter, their habits and interests revolted. The small boroughs which that bill would have nearly if not quite obliterated, were an element of power personal to themselves. Hence of the thirty-three so-called liberals who voted against the bill, fourteen were sons of Peers, four were cadets of noble houses, one was the heir presumptive of a peerage, and the rest were gentlemen who owed their seats to the confidence reposed in them by great Whig houses.

Of course, it is useless to speculate as to what hands the Government will fall into. The next arrival will probably bring the details of the organization of a new Ministry.

WE HAVE already stated that when the Tennessee Legislature assembled on the 6th inst. a quorum of the members were not present. Fifty-five members of the House were in their seats. Mr. DUNKAWAY resigned on purpose to prevent action. Had he occupied his seat, the Legislature could have proceeded to business. Two other members left the city the day before, knowing that a quorum were in attendance. These factionists are supporters of the President's Policy. If a quorum shall be obtained, the amendment will certainly be ratified.

BITUMINOUS COALS.—It is a fact that for ten years past the Gas Works at Honesdale, Pennsylvania, have mainly used coals from New Castle, England. For two years only, if we remember aright, have coals from our own State, or any other American coals, been employed. It has been cheaper to buy the English coals in New York, and transport them more than two hundred miles into the interior, than to get coals across the State by railroad and canal. During the last three years English coals have been used exclusively.

A NEWSPAPER published in a recently rebel State, but which now admires "my policy," says:

"Captain Semmes had an interview with Mr. Johnson on Friday. As yet he has not been pardoned, though it is understood he gives his cordial assent to the President's policy."

Every rebel and copperhead in the country concurs with the Pirate SEMMES in his estimate of the President's programme. We don't blame them.

WARREN.—The Republicans of this county have nominated for Congress, G. W. Scofield, by acclamation; Senate, L. D. Wetmore, by acclamation; Additional Law Judge, Wm. D. Brown, by acclamation; Associate Judges, James Dennison, of Sugar Grove, Sidney A. Wetmore, Conewanego; Register and Recorder, James G. Marsh; Treasurer, Chase Osgood.

THE returns of the primary elections held in the Cleveland district on Saturday show that Mr. Spalding will be renominated as the Republican candidate for Congress. The contest has been sharp.

RICHARD H. DANA, JR., Esq., has been chosen the successor of Hon. Edward Everett, to lecture upon the law of nations in the Cambridge Law School during the next academic year.

THE Southern Congressmen elect are to issue an address supporting the Call for the Philadelphia National Convention.

—One of the oldest incidents in the records of the stage, occurred recently at a New Orleans theatre. An elderly actor was in the midst of an impassioned love scene, when his false teeth became loosened and fell out upon the boards. The lady with whom he was playing, with great presence of mind, swept her ample skirts over the denthd's work, and the actor, dropping his handkerchief, stooped and regained them, and walking jauntily from the footlights, replaced them without having at all deranged the scene or attracted the attention of more than a dozen people in the house.

—We learn from the Helena (Ark.) Clarion, that at the term of the Circuit Court in session at Helena, the members of the bar voluntarily agreed to stay executions on all judgments rendered at that term, for six months. It further states that but for this interposition there would have been great distress in the country. There is no stay law in Arkansas, but there is an act of the Legislature allowing the defendant in execution to give a delivery bond, with securities, the effect of which is to postpone the collection of the judgment for twelve months.

—It is said that, upon consultation with Governor Orr, General Sickles has disapproved the issue of rations to white people in South Carolina, on the ground of exaggerated reports and the danger of promoting idleness.

New Feature in Life Insurance.
We welcome and commend to the careful consideration of our readers, a new feature in Life Insurance inaugurated by the "Mutual Life" of New York, for which G. M. Blacklock is the intelligent and efficient agent, at No. 57 Fifth street, in this city. By this provision, widows and orphans, (a class rarely well qualified for managing their own financial interests,) can have secured to them a regular and sure maintenance for life, or for any period deemed sufficient by the husband, or father, to place them beyond the reach of unhappy contingencies, consequent upon his death. We regard this as a most beneficent feature of Life Insurance, and the New York Mutual Life Insurance Company, already well known and largely patronized in this city, will, we doubt not, greatly increase its business by reason of it.

The Wonder of Wonders.
If anything be entitled to the above appellation, that thing is "Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher." From day to day we publish some of the most marvellous cures of diseases, which for years have plagued their victims, as well as baffling the skill of doctors, and setting all remedies at defiance, and these cures are of persons known, and residents in the community where the medicine is prepared, so as to defy all doubt in regard to the reality of the cures, or the genuineness of the medicine, which performs them.

Here is another certificate of a case of chronic Erysipelas, of a late date.

Erysipelas.—I had erysipelas for the last ten years of my body. I doctored for it a great deal with those who were reconed the best of doctors, and spent as much as two hundred dollars to get cured all the doctoring, and all the remedies did me no good, until I got anat took Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, of which I took seven bottles. I was well long before I stopped taking the Blood Searcher; but I wanted to make a sure thing of it. So I kept on taking it until I had taken in all seven bottles. I am entirely well, and you may publish these facts. I am well known by Wm. H. Brown, coal dealer, and Mr. Huston, Merchant Tailor, on Smithfield street.

JOHN FOSSICK, Brown's Station.

Ask for Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, and take no other; at 140 Wood street; $1 per bottle, six for five dollars.

Is Consumption Curable?
To any one in perfect health and in the enjoyment of all the faculties with which mankind are endowed, the question above will excite hardly a passing notice, but to him who may be suffering under the pains and anxieties incident to a disease whose very name has been and still is a terror to one-tenth of the human race—to him, what we are going to say may be of some moment and worthy of his serious attention. If what we are going to say be true, it is worthy the attention of every one afflicted with pulmonary disease, under whatever name. If not true, it ought not to be said, ought not to be heard. We are one of those who believe that pulmonary consumption is curable, has been cured in hundreds of instances, and we believe the evidence can be and right here, in this city, to prove the assertion. Dr. Keyser, of 140 Wood street, has prepared and now prepares a medicine called Pectoral Syrup, which in many instances has cured pulmonary diseases of various kinds, and he brings to the proof anumbers of our own citizens to sunstantiate the fact. Among these we may mention Alderman Wilson, Capt. Jas. O'Brien, Dr. Depuy, Edward D. Jones, John C. Little of Pittsburgh; Llewalln, John Richards, and we would name ten times as many more, who could attest its value, did we wish to occupy space in doing so. What we wish to do now, is merely to call attention to the fact that Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup will cure any case of recent cough or cold threatening to involve the lungs or pulmonary organs. More than ten thousand people in Pittsburgh can witness the truth of this statement. The value of Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup cannot be measured by its cost in dollars and cents. Dr. Keyser prepares a medicine especially for old standing lung diseases called Lung Cure or Alterative. It is a tonic strengthening medicine which will not weaken or protract the system, and with which, in conjunction with the Pectoral Syrup, has cured many bad cases of Pulmonary disease.

Ask for Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup at 140, Wood street. Price 75 cents per bottle, or three bottles for $2.

Ladies of Delicate Constitution
And uncertain health are strenuously advised to throw aside the nauseous and useless preparations with which they are accustomed to drug themselves, and test the hygeian, body-and-mind-strengthening virtues of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. In all the complaints and disabilities arising from various causes, they will find this cheering, refreshing and invigorating preparation of extraordinary efficacy. Its regulating properties are wonderful, and as a remedy for the languor, nauses, tremors, convulsions, hysterias, &c., which often accompany the development of organhood, it has no equal among the prescriptions of the faculty or advertised medicines. For the many distressing feelings which usher in and often follow the period of maternity, and also for the painful and dangerous symptoms which sometimes accompany "change of life," HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are earnestly recommended. No other restorative seems to suit so well the constitutions and the organizations of the feebler sex. In all cases of Female Debility, where there is a want of brisk vital action, the BITTERS produce a most important change—relieving local weakness, and re-establishing the general health.

Hostetter's Bitters
Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 85 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

The London Times gives the following summary of the movements in Venetia: The Italian army divided in three corps and a reserve, making a force of about eighty to ninety thousand. The combatants, after crossing the Mincio, at Goito, and other points on the river, by attacking, and setting reconnoitering parties towards Peschira and Verona, encamped for the night beyond Roundella, equi-distant from the two fortresses.

On the ensuing morning an attempt was made upon those high positions of Sona Somma, Campagna and Santa Giustina, which commanded the fifteen miles of railway line joining the two strongholds, the possession of which played a conspicuous part in the campaign of 1848. The object of the Italians was evidently to secure possession of these points, so as to isolate Peschira and serve as a base of operations against Verona.

The Austrians, twice as many, who were massed in great force at Verona, sallied forth from the place at daybreak, and, anticipating the Italian movements, took up their position on those hills, which are now everywhere bristling with bastions, and may be looked upon as mere outworks of the two citadels, extending from the one gate of Lonedo to those of Tomba.

After a severe and bloody, or, as the Italians describe it, desperate struggle, which lasted nearly the whole day, that longest of summer days, the Imperial army was victorious along the whole line. They stormed the summit of Monteviteo, where the Italians held out longest, and at the close of the contest, (seven P. M., they also carried the position of Custozza, a spot fatal to Italian arms in their encounter with Radetski in July, 1848.

The Italian and Austrian dispatches do not differ materially about the engagement. No estimate can yet be formed of the losses.

The Times believes this a favorable moment for a diplomatic settlement of the war with Italy, and intimates that Austria would be willing to cede Venetia for a sum of money, now that her military power is tested.

REVOLUTION IN THE REPUBLIC PREDICTED.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The steamer New York, from Aspinwall, brings Panama dates to the 1st, and $1,430,000 in gold.

Chili, Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador are said to have formed a league to free Cuba from Spain, and an application was made to Venezuela and Columbia to join the alliance. The three first named are to furnish money and the others men, while hopes are entertained of inducing the United States by the emigration of Southerners through Florida.

Advices from Bogota announce the installation of the new President Mosquera. He disapproved of the Congress making any thereafter annuities to nuns, in consideration of the confiscation of their property. The Senate insisted upon carrying out the measure, and the result was that an armed mob paraded the streets, entered the Senate Chamber, and by threats compelled Congress to sanction the veto of the President. This was considered to be the first step towards Mosquera's declaring himself permanent dictator. Everything denotes a general revolution throughout the republic, but if Mosquera does not die he will probably fight his way through.

Matters look gloomy along the south coast. Great dissatisfaction exists in Chili, and a change of government must soon take place. Peru seems on the verge of a revolution.

The Isthmus is quiet, but a change in the government is anxiously looked for.

The early rains have caused much disentery.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—It is stated the President will direct General Sickles to answer the writ issued against him, and surrender the parties claimed, to the Court. CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS

The Military Bill Passed by the Senate —Synopsis of Its Provisions—Consideration of the Tariff Bill in the House. in Committee of the Whole. Concluded.

WASHINGTON, July 9, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Clark, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported a bill to regulate the times and manner of holding elections for Senators in Congress. It provides, first, that the legislature of any State next preceding the expiration of a Senatorial term, shall elect, on the 2d Tuesday of its session, a successor of the retiring Senator. The voting shall be viva voce, and the name of a person receiving a majority of the votes cast in each House shall be entered upon the journal of each House and a joint meeting of the two Houses shall be convened at twelve o'clock the following day, and if the same person is found to have received a majority, he shall be declared elected, but if the same person shall not have received a majority in both Houses, or if either House shall have failed to take proceedings as required, the joint Assembly shall proceed to-day after day, and the person receiving a majority of votes, all the members being present and voting, shall be declared duly elected.

Second, that where a vacancy shall exist on the opening of a session of a Legislature, an election shall be held on the second Tuesday of the session, and if a vacancy shall occur during the session, it shall be filled on the second Tues day after its announcement.

Third, that the Governor shall certify such election, and the Secretary of State countersign the certificate to the President of the Senate.

Mr. Brown, from the Military Committee, reported favorably on the bill to enlarge and improve the arsenal grounds at St. Louis.

Mr. Wilson reported from the Military Committee the bill introduced on Saturday authorizing the sale of the Government property at Harper's Ferry.

Mr. Edmunds offered a resolution calling upon the Secretary of War for a copy of the report of Surgeon General Barnes on the medical and statistical statistics of the war, which was adopted.

Mr. Howard introduced a joint resolution granting to railroad companies the right of way, not exceeding one hundred feet in width on each side of the track and, the necessary grounds for depots and stations or military reserves, and authorizing the President to restore military reserves to the public domain where not needed for military purposes.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, defended the bill as a most monstrous proposition, and appealed to the House not to second the previous question, and then Mr. Kasson rising to debate the point on the resolution, it went over under the rules.

Mr. Grimnell introduced a concurrent resolution that Congress when it adjourns on a certain day not fixed, shall take a recess to meet on Saturday the first day in December next. Referred.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, offered a resolution, which was adopted, requesting the President to communicate to the Senate a copy of any correspondence he may have had with Gov. Wells, of Louisiana, in relation to the Constitutional Convention of Louisiana, which held a session in 1864.

Mr. Le Blond suggested to call also for the correspondence with Mr. Forney. (Laughter.)

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill supplementary to the Pacific Railroad bills of July 1st, 1862, and July 2d, 1864. Read twice and referred.

Mr. Patterson offered a resolution, which was adopted, directing the Secretary of War to communicate the report of medical statistics, collected during the war, in the Bureau of the Provost Marshal General, by Surgeon J. H. Barnes.

Mr. Cobb offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to inquire whether any further legislation is necessary for the payment of three months extra pay to officers who, having served one term, and having been mustered out, had again entered the service.

Mr. Bradford, of Colorado, introduced a joint resolution authorizing the Judges of the several Courts of Colorado to fix its terms, which was read twice and referred.

Mr. McClurg, from the same committee, reported in the case of Abbottz, contesting the seat of Coffroth, as representative from the Sixteenth District of Pennsylvania, that Mr. Coffroth was not entitled to the seat and that Mr. Koontz was.

Mr. Schenck renewed the proposition which he had made last Saturday, in reference to the army bill, and there being no objection, he reported back the Senate bill, and moved as a substitute therefor the House bill.

The substitute was agreed to by 35 to 30, and the bill as amended was passed.

The House then resolved itself into a committee and resumed the consideration of the tariff bill.

Mr. Taylor moved to strike out the fifteenth section of the bill. He made an argument against the bill and then withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Morrill moved to strike out the eighteenth section and to insert in lieu of it a section authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to give to the Alabama and Florida Railroad Company five years credit for the duties on railroad iron now being relaid on thirty-seven miles of its track from which the rails and fastenings were removed by the so-called Confederate military authorities.

Mr. Blair moved to amend the section, instead of the words "Confederate military authorities," the words "rebel forces." The amendment to the amendment was agreed to. The amendment elicited considerable debate, being supported by Messrs. Bingham, French, Dawes, Morrill and Kelly, and being opposed by Messrs. Payne and Stevens, the latter stating that he did not believe in coaxing rebels with sugar-plums and love breasts. The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hooper, a new section was added in reference to the export of guano.

On motion of Mr. Dawes, a new section was added extending the provisions of the fourth section of the Tariff act of March 3d, 1865, to vessels to or from any ports in the Sandwich Islands or the Society Islands.

Mr. Stevens moved to add a new section, extending the provision in regard to credit on railroad iron from the Florida and Alabama Railroad to all the railroads west of Pennsylvania. Rejected.

Mr. Griswold sent to the Clerk's desk, and had read, a letter from the United States Consul at Liverpool, stating that the manufacturers of England were leaving no stone unturned to break down the manufacturers of this country.

On motion of Mr. Morrill, a new section was added, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to refund the excess of duty paid by importers.

Mr. Garfield moved to add a new section, levying the tax on gunny bags or sacks, whether imported empty or containing merchandise. Rejected.

Mr. Morrill moved to fill up the blank for the time on which this act should take effect with the words "First day of August, 1866."

Mr. Diller moved to amend, by inserting October instead of August. The amendment was rejected and the original motion agreed to.

Mr. Marshall moved to strike out "1866" and insert "1870," and spoke against the entire bill. The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Rice, of Massachusetts, moved to add to section 27, a provision that all goods, wares and merchandise in bond, warehouse, or on ship board, and bound to the United States from the 1st day of July, 1866, shall be subject to the conditions and rates of duty which were applicable to said goods, wares and merchandise at the time of the passage of this act.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, offered a substitute for the proviso, that all goods, wares and merchandise in the hands of importers at the time of the passage of this act, shall pay additional duties levied by this act.

After some debate, Mr. Kasson, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Dodge opposing the substitute, it was agreed to by a vote of 55 to 42.

The question being on Mr. Rice's amendment as amended, debate was renewed, Messrs. Morrill, Hale, Schenck and Boutwell opposing the proposition, and Mr. Washburne explaining it. The latter gentleman moved to amend the substitute as follows: Provided, further, that all goods, wares and merchandize, in bond or in bonded warehouse, on which duties have been paid, shall, after this law takes effect, pay all the rates of duty imposed by this act.

The amendment was agreed to: Ayes 62, nays 38.

Mr. McRuer offered an additional proviso, that where duties are reduced by this bill the difference shall be returned to the importers on goods on hand. Rejected.

Mr. Rice, of Massachusetts, moved an additional proviso, that all goods, wares and merchandise actually on ship board and bound to the United States, when this act shall take effect, from ports beyond Cape Horn, shall be subject to same conditions and rates of duty which were applicable to such goods, wares and merchandise at the time of the passage of this act. He addressed the Committee in behalf of the proposition.

Mr. Allison opposed the amendment and suggested the question whether cargoes of tea and coffee should be taxed at present rates instead of at the reduced rates proposed.

Mr. Rice, of Massachusetts, replied that his amendment applied as well to the case of diminished duties as to that of increased duties. The amendment was rejected.

On motion of Mr. Boutwell, the collection of the direct tax was suspended until January 1, 1868.

Mr. Morrill spoke in favor of it, declaring that there was no better measure of reconstruction.

Mr. Payne moved that the previous question on the bill and the Florida and Alabama Railroad, be extended to all the Railroad Companies in the United States and Territories. Rejected.

On motion of Mr. Ames, a drawback was allowed on Mowing Machines, &c., of the duty paid on the materials entering into their composition.

On motion, Mr. McRuer, and by unanimous consent, the proviso to section 6, forbidding the importation of wines, brandies, or other spiritous liquors in less quantities than are allowed by this act after the first of October, 1866, was amended so as to make the prohibition apply only to wines &c., shipped after that date.

Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, moved to strike out the 23d section, which provides for the establishment of a bureau of statistics. He said as the proper time he would move to abolish the Treasury, Interior and other Departments and then create a Department of Statistics, at the head of which should be placed the eminent statistician, Hon. E. D. Mansfield.

The motion to strike out was opposed by Messrs. Garfield and Kasson, and finally the motion was withdrawn, with the understanding that a vote would be had on the section in the House.

This being the last section of the bill, Mr. Morrill moved that the Committee rise and report the bill.

A colloquy arose between the members, some of whom desired to move that the bill be recommitted with instructions, while Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, desired to submit a motion to postpone the bill till next December. Finally it was agreed that all those motions might be made in the House, whereupon the Committee rose and reported the bill and amendments.

At three o'clock p. m. the House adjourned.

After the adjournment it was announced by the Reading Clerk, by direction of Mr. Morrill, that a caucus of Union Senators and members would be held in the Hall of the House to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Liberals were discordant.

FROM MEXICO.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—A letter from the Imperial Governor of the Department of Tepic, Mexico, states that the Liberal General Corono has withdrawn to Cuinacan, leaving small detachments near Mazatlan to annoy the French. He had made no defensive movement since the fifth of May. The Imperialists had received orders to commence an active campaign in honors.

Proclamations of Maximilian had appeared at several points in Jalisco, but were easily repulsed.

Robbery and Arrest in Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, July 7.—A young man named Henry Bull, by means of a ladder, entered the house of Mr. Charles Arnold through an open window and obtained the keys to his coal office and safe, and stole from the latter of six hundred dollars in seven-thirties. He then went to Jeffersonville and got from Leonard at the Ohio House a hack, returned and went to a house of ill-fame, on Lafayette street, where he was spending the money freely on his mistress, and was arrested there and part of the money recovered. This created considerable excitement, as young Bull has borne a good character heretofore, and it is only one of many similar recent occurrences where fashionable prostitutes, living in the most stylish and extravagant manner, have worked victim of young men of good standing. Bull will get ten years hard labor in the penitentiary.

Gold Mining Operations in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—The stock market the past week has been generally stronger. The yield of the mines was never better, and there is much more firmness in the market. A vein of fifty do lars wide, 30 by 160 feet, was lately discovered. In Hale and Norcross the receipts of the past month were $100,000, the dividends of the same mine during the month of June products, $130,000. Crown Point improves. June receipts, $10,500. The receipts of Gould & Curry in intrinsic value, was $146,000. For the month of June, the Imperial reports $61,000, and Yellow Jacket, $26,000 Accounts from the Averman are good.

Bold Robbery at New York Custom House.

NEW YORK, July 9.—This afternoon, a boy fourteen years of age, named Cooper, employed by Messrs. Congreve, Stuart and Cooper, had a bag containing $3,000 in gold snatched from his hand, while standing in the cashier's office of the Custom House, by an unknown man. He pursued the man, and soon fell senseless in the street from the effects of chloroform. It is thought the man escaped. The money belonged to Messrs. Janssen, Schmidt and Ruperti, and was about to be paid for customs.

The Arrest of Judge Reed in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, July 7.—Great excitement prevails among the rebel and Democratic portion of the community at the arrest of Judge Reed, clerk of the Circuit Court under the Civil Rights bill. Parties stand ready to give two hundred thousand dollars bail for him, and pledge themselves to spend twenty-five thousand dollars for his defense. On the other hand the United States authorities seem quite determined to make an example of him, and punish him to the full extent of the law.

Riot at Charleston—A Negro Mob Fires at the Police.

AUGUSTA, GA., July 9.—There was a riot in the market at Charleston last Saturday night. Some negro soldiers were blocking up the passage and were requested to desist by the police, which they refused to do. The police returned reinforced, and fired into the police, dangerously wounding one or two colored bystanders. The angry policemen charged and routed the mob.

From California and China.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—The mining reports from Montana are favorable.

Advices from China of May 7th represent the quality of tea crops favorable, and an advance in prices of 6 tails on Congos and 10 tails on Oolong.

The first vessel of the codfish fleet, from the Ochotsk Sea, has arrived at San Francisco, with 3,000 bbls.

Iron advanced yesterday 30 per cent.

Killed by Lightning.

HARTFORD, (Ct.,) July 9.—During a tempest of thunder and lightning, at six o'clock, this evening, the lightning struck the house of Mr. Chas. Whiting, in Forestville, Bristol, instantly killing Mr. and his son. Mrs. Whiting was seriously injured, and though she still lives it is doubtful if she will recover. She and Mr. Whiting sat on a sofa, and the son in a chair near by.

Deaths from Sunstroke—Killed by Lightning.

BOSTON, July 9.—Four deaths were reported from sunstroke yesterday and the day before.

During a thunder shower last evening, the lightning struck the dwelling of George Fairbanks, in Hudson, Mass., killing his daughter Emma, aged 13 years, and prostrating the other members of the family, but not fatally.

Sales in the Portland Fire.

PORTLAND, July 9.—In the late fire, safes of nearly all descriptions proved worthless; in most cases when unprotected, and the few which did stand the ordeal hardly saved by circumstances. It is judged from this that vaults only built from the ground are entirely reliable.

Boston and the Portland Calamity.

BOSTON, July 9.—Nearly forty-two thousand dollars was subscribed within three hours today, and a committee is out for the Portland sufferers. It is expected the cash subscriptions in Boston will reach one hundred thousand dollars by to-morrow.

Race Between Dexter and Patchen, Jr.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.—The race at Suffolk Park this afternoon, between Dexter and Patchen, Jr., in harness, was won by Dexter in three straight heats. Time: 2.25, 2.25, 2.23½. The latter is the best time made by Dexter.

General Sherman in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.—General Sherman arrived this morning at eleven o'clock. He was met at the hotel by Major General Meade, and spent the morning driving through the suburbs of the city.

Fire at Little Falls, N. Y.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., July 9.—The Valley House and Walter Wagner's cabinet shop were destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The loss is fifteen thousand dollars. Partially insured.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Additional Local Matters on Third Page.

Inauguration of the Sewickley Soldiers Monument.

Messrs. D. N. White, T. H. Nevin and J. W. F. White, the Committee having in charge the work of erecting a Monument in Sewickley Cemetery, to the memory of the soldiers from that neighborhood who lost their lives in the late war of rebellion, announce to the patrons and friends of the enterprise that the Monument is now completed, and that it will be formally inaugurated, with appropriate ceremonies, on Thursday, the 12th inst., at two o'clock p. m. The Committee extend a most cordial invitation to all the citizens of Sewickley and vicinity to be present on the occasion, as well as to all others, far and near, who feel an interest in so noble and patriotic a work. Gentlemen of the press and the officers and soldiers of the late war are especially invited.

The following is the programme: 1. Opening Hymn. 2. Introductory prayer. 3. Report of Committee. 4. Address by J. W. F. White, Esq. 5. Inauguration hymn. 6. Inauguration prayer. 7. Addresses by distinguished strangers and others. Benediction.

An Appreciated Gift.—We were yesterday made the recipient of an elegant, life-size oil painting of a prominent local editor, now deceased, who flourished many years ago in this city. The donor, Alex. McIlwaine, Esq., the well-known auctioneer, has our sincere thanks and kindest regards, and the gratitude of the profession. Through the vicissitudes of fortune the portrait was placed in the auction-rooms, and rather than expose it at public sale, Mr. McIlwaine became a purchaser, and donated it to our sanctum. We appreciate the gift and the spirit of charity and veneration which actuated the donor.

No Salt Inspector.—By the death of Jacob Fedler, which occurred some time since, the office of City Salt Inspector is left vacant. There is some talk of a meeting of Councils this evening for the purpose of electing a person to fill the vacancy.

Assault and Battery.—Conn O'Neil was before Alderman Donaldson yesterday on a charge of assault and battery, preferred against him by a colored individual named Gideon Jones. Conn deeded the citizens will contend ball for trial.

Meeting at the Mayor's Office—Relief for the Portland Sufferers.

Pursuant to a call published in all the city papers, a meeting was held at the Mayor's office at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of devising some measures to aid the sufferers by the recent terrible conflagration at Portland, Maine.

The meeting was composed of the most solid and influential citizens in this community, and in point of numbers was quite respectable. Severe indisposition preventing Mayor M'Carthy from attending, on motion of Thomas Steel, Esq., Mr. Jno. Harper was chosen Chairman. On motion the representatives of the press were requested to act as Secretaries, and the following named gentlemen were unanimously chosen to serve as Vice Presidents: Isaac Jones, Esq., Ex-Mayor George Wilson, J. J. Gillespie, Esq., William O. Davis, Esq., W. M. Hersh, Esq., C. W. Rickerson, Esq., Hon. Thomas M. Howe, Esq., R

EUROPEAN WAR.

Our wish, as expressed in our last comments, has been speedily fulfilled. We have received news from Italy, though news unwelcome to every lover of liberty. A first battle has been fought, and—if we may trust the telegrams forwarded—has resulted in a repulse, if not defeat, of the Italian army. There seems to have been two distinct engagements, occasioned by the crossing of the rivers Mincio and Po by the Italian army. These rivers form the boundaries of Venicia, the Po flowing south, and the Mincio west of it. In both attempts the Italians seem to have been unsuccessful. That portion of their army which had crossed the Mincio under command of the King himself was met and repulsed by the Austrians under Archduke Albrecht at Custozza, a small place near the fortress of Mincio. The battle seems to have been a bloody one, with the taking and retaking of Custozza as its principal features.

The other engagement was fought between the Italian army that had crossed the Po and an Austrian division sent from Mantua to meet them. This battle also resulted in a repulse of the Italians, who have since fallen back across the rivers mentioned, followed by the Austrians.

This news reaches us through Austrian channels, and ought therefore to be received with caution. The Austrian dispatch does not even use the name of "victory," and mentions heavy losses, even amongst officers of high rank. It also announces that the spirit of the troops is the very best, a circumstance pretty much a matter of course after a victory, and generally dwelt upon after a defeat. The next steamer will bring us further particulars. This much, however, we know, that this early reverse has not discouraged the Italian people; on the contrary, it has had on them the same effect made upon the Northern people here by the first battle of Bull Run. It is only stirring them up to further efforts. Yet, we cannot hide from ourselves, nor our readers, the fact that further reverses will follow the first one, and that the interference of France will at last become necessary. We should regret this very much; we should hail the success of the Italian arms with delight, but we cannot help having some doubts. These doubts are based upon reasons, which we shall presently develop. The Italian nation is just awaking from a lethargy of centuries, from a degradation almost unexampled. Lethargy may be stripped off in a moment, but degradation cannot. Though fired by a holy zeal, though led by heroes such as Garibaldi, the Italian cannot at once strip off the many imperfections, not to say vices, into which events and circumstances had plunged and kept him so long. Besides, the fire and enthusiasm of southern nations, though ardent and overwhelming at the outset, are apt to abate soon, like the fire built of straw. Thirdly, however, and this is our main reason, the military organization of Italy is as far below that of Austria as Austria's is below that of Prussia. And yet this is one of the principal reasons of success. History shows us in a thousand examples that disorderly zeal and enthusiasm avail but little against the order, the discipline, the experience of veteran bodies, and that tyranny has for this very reason but too often prevailed over the efforts of lovers of liberty. May a different fate be that of Italy. May they owe their complete liberty to themselves, rather than to French assistance, from which a state of tutilage might spring, little better than dependence. Moreover, the interference of France could not but draw other nations into the fray and spread the flames of war, burning so fiercely already.

In regard to Germany, the last news has sustained our prediction. It is plainly intimated that Bohemia, and not Saxony, is expected to be the great battle-field on which the destiny of Germany is to be decided. Some hints are also thrown out in regard to certain intended movements of Benedick; by which he would compel an evacuation of Saxony by the Prussians. If such movements are in his power, they will certainly be made soon, but to judge from antecedents, we confess, to see but little probability.

In Western Germany things remain evidently unchanged; but in the center, they assume an interesting aspect. The Hanoverians were, or are still, in an unpleasant situation. Surrounded by Prussian troops on all sides, there seemed to be no chance but surrender. A dispatch from Gotha, dated June 25th, speaks of their escape; but another, from Berlin, dated June 26th, leaves them in their previous predicament, and speaks of twenty-four hours of grace granted to the King of Hanover, to consider a surrender. Should they be captured, a considerable force would thereby be made harmless and such a success would still more tend to disheartan the minor allies of Austria.

SOME years ago Mr. ISAAC V. FOWLER was Postmaster of the city of New York. He appropriated a very large sum of money belonging to the government to his own use; lived expensively; gave liberally; was highly popular; and when the explosion came managed to escape from the country. The government has just ordered a nolle prosequi to be entered in his case. He will doubtless soon return home. The New York News says he will be affectionately welcomed by hosts of friends. The course of the Administration in this case gives encouragement to dishonesty.

THE supporters of President JOHNSON, down in Kentucky, have a strong way of putting cases. Take an instance from the Frankfort Yeoman:

"Let the people of Kentucky remember that they have been robbed of more than one hundred-millions of slave property by the Constitutional Amendment party of the country, of which General E. H. Hobson was a prominent and distinguished leader."

THE FOURTH AT NASHVILLE.

The loyal people of Nashville, Tennessee, honored Independence Day by a Reunion in a grove near the field of General THOMAS's great battle. Generals THOMAS, JOHNSON, FISK and DONALDSON graced the occasion by their presence. Judge WM. MILLS presided. General FISK read the Declaration of Independence. Chaplain EARNSHAW lead in prayer. Mr. HORACE MAYNARD made the address. He devoted some attention to the Constitutional Amendment. Said he:

"The first two sections were in the Constitution already, in substance. The third section fixing the basis of representation in Congress and the Electoral College was of prime importance. How does representation stand at present? Four blacks and one white in South Carolina have as many votes in Congress as four whites and one black in East Tennessee. Will any fair-minded person contend that this is equitable or just? What was the principle of the "White Basis" of which you used to hear so much? It was that voters only shall be represented, and not those who do not vote. The principle of the third section of the amendment is the same. The fourth section excludes rebels from office. It only strikes at the deliberate rebel. It does not touch the boys who were deceived by artful demagogues, or by the wiles of enthusiastic and over-zealous women. Some say this section does not exclude enough. Mr. Lincoln once observed that it was better for him to be a little behind rather than a little before the people. It is better to give one stroke too little, than by giving one stroke too much elevate a criminal into a martyr.

"These are the terms a victorious nation offers to those who for four years tried to destroy it. It is a magnanimity unparalled in the history of the world. The gallant soldiers who have fought the battles of the Union have done their duty, and their imperishable fame is beyond the reach of accident or chance. Our children and our children's children will do them honor. For us who perform a more quiet part on the same side, there remains another duty; let us do it so that posterity will give us a share in the glory of saving the nation."

POLITICAL.

—The Democracy of New Jersey, it is said, evince a disposition to throw the Hon. Andrew J. Rogers overboard.

—Norman B. Judd, late Minister in Berlin, is another candidate in the First Illinois District against the Hon. John Wentworth.

—In Kansas there are said to be at this time 21 candidates for the position of member of Congress, 32 for Governor, and 11 for United States Senator.

—The Republican Union party of Kentucky have opened the political campaign with spirit. They have nominated the gallant General Hobson for Clerk of the State Court of Appeals, in opposition to both the rebel and the "conservative" Democracy, and opened the canvass on Tuesday evening by a large mass meeting at Louisville.

—The Chicago Journal says: "Hon. J. B. Grinnell is proposed for the next Governor of Iowa. He would have been renominated for Congress had his constituents heard of Rosseau's assault upon him before the Convention met that nominated a candidate in his place. But now they propose to do even better by him, by making him the next Governor."

—The New York Herald charges that the majority of the appointments now being made by the President are of a chafacter to affect the honorable reputation of the nation at large, and lessen the dignity of the Government in the eyes of all respectable men. The Herald charges that loafers monopolize the favors of the President. This is a bad opinion from so enthusiastic a supporter of Andy.

—The official vote in Nebraska is given in the Omaha Republican of the 27th ult. Returns from thirty-three counties gave a vote of 3,938 for the new Constitution, a majority of 100. The votes for candidates were as follows: Congress, Marquette, 4,110, a majority of 136 over Brooke. Governor, Butler, 4,093, a majority of 145 over Morton. Chief Justice, Little, (Dem.) 4,040, a majority of 140 over Mason.

—The Bowling Green (Ky.) Gazette, (Dem.) says concerning Gen. Rosseau: "The probabilities so far are that Rosseau will succeed Garrett Davis. Kentucky might do better. There are not many giants among her politicians nowadays, but there are better heads among them than Rosseau's, and, if we mistake not, better hearts, too. But demagoguery is in the ascendant at present, and statesmanship and good morals are below par. If we do not have Senator Rosseau, we will probably have some one else who is more politician than statesman. The time has not yet come for solid, substantial men to be in demand."

GENERAL NEWS.

—A building in Galveston, occupied as a grocery store, was blown down by the explosion of a keg of gunpowder, on the 2d. A negro was carelessly smoking his pipe near the open keg, when a spark dropped, and the negro was blown to atoms.

—A colored clergyman of Nashville recently married a white man and colored woman. He was charged with having violated the plain provisions of the State statutes, and was directed to give bond in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

—Several regiments of United States colored troops have contributed nearly seven thousand dollars towards raising a fund of twenty thousand dollars, for the purpose of establishing a school for the education of colored people. It is to be called the Lincoln Institute, and is to be located at Jefferson City.

—The merchants of St. Louis have sent to Mr. W. H. Dickson, of South Florence, a large amount of supplies to be distributed gratuitously among the destitute of Morgan, Lawrence, Winston, Walker, Marion and Franklin counties, Alabama. Three hundred sacks of corn, ninety barrels of flour, twenty thousand pounds of bacon, and various other articles have arrived, and more is soon expected.

—The prospects for a famine in the Western States are poor. The Cincinnati Gazette says that in Indiana the wheat is not good, but the corn is wonderfully fine. Thousands of bushels of potatoes have been planted and are doing well. Oats—a fair crop. In Illinois wheat (Spring) is excellent; corn splendid; fruit, an average crop, and farmers are in fine spirits. There is no danger of a scarcity if the weather continues favorable. The hay prospect is fair.

—One of the most fearful tornadoes that ever visited St. Paul, Minnesota, swept over the city last week, lasting about three quarters of an hour. A number of buildings were injured, and a Dr. Schell fatally hurt. At Howe's consolidated circus, which was in full blast when the storm came up, were gathered between two and three thousand persons, and the immense canvass was hurled upon the heads of the inmates, burying them all in one confused mass. No one was seriously injured, though a great consternation ensued.

—A terrible accident occurred at Lafayette, Ohio, on the 2d inst. Mrs. Christopher Martin, in order to start a fire in her cooking-stove, applied a coal oil lamp which was burning, but from which the chimney had been removed. The result was an explosion of the lamp, setting her clothes on fire, and burning her body so badly that she died in a short time. Her husband was also severely burned in attempting to save her. Mr. Martin seems to have been born to ill-luck. Two years ago, while riding out with the daughter of Rev. S. S. Serwiss, his horses ran away, and throwing Miss S. upon the hard pike, killed her instantly.

—Two more national cemeteries have been located by the corps of workmen engaged under the direction of Lieut. Col. Moore, A. Q. M. One has been called the "City Point Cemetery," and is situated one mile from City Point, Va., near the banks of the Appamatox river, on the farm of E. Comer, and contains four acres. The other is known as "Fort Harrison Cemetery," and is established on a knoll half a mile east of Fort Harris, nine miles east from Richmond, Va. This cemetery contains one and three-quarter acres. The City Point Cemetery will contain all the dead that were buried on the left of the Jerusalem plank road and around City Point. Fort Harrison Cemetery will contain all the remains buried at Deep Bottom, Dutch Gap, and of those men who fell in the charge on Fort Harrison.

"A Treasonable Conclave."

The Knoxville Whig, of the 4th instant, has the following editorial in reference to the so-called National Convention which meets in Philadelphia in August. The Whig says:

"A convention of the States is called for the second Tuesday in August next, to be held in Philadelphia. With a view to take the people in, and practice a fraud upon loyal men, it is called a Union Convention; and to further cheat the people, it professes to meet to serve the representation of the Southern States in Congress, and to defend and protect the Constitution. Let the truly loyal men keep out of that meeting. It is a Rebel—Southern—Democratic—Conservative—Constitutional—President-making—Conclave, whose object is, although ostensibly intended to restore loyal men, north and south, will keep out of, and stubbornly avoid. Union men don't want the Rebel Southern States restored to their former status in the Union, without indemnity for the past and security for the future. Nor do they want Southern Senators and Representatives admitted to seats until they elect men who can take the TEST OATH.

"Let those who want to aid the cause of the Rebels and traitors of the South, and those who wish to aid in the organization of the corrupt Democratic party, attend at Philadelphia. That is the meeting for all such men to attend, but let true-hearted Union men stay away, as they will be very certain to do."

SOME of the St. Louis papers publish a lengthy account of what is called a banquet in a brothel, which created a sensation in that community. The substance of it is that while the Cincinnati police was on a visit there, the Police Commissioners surprised them with a midnight banquet at one of the most notorious and fashionable bawdy houses on Greene street, escorting the Cincinnati guests into the place without informing them where they were going.

When the character of the establishment became known the Cincinnati Chief retired with the remark that he was "not accustomed to that sort of thing in his official business." It is said the proprietress of the house exhibited her sense of the high honor done her by setting out a supper of regal style, with wines in abundance. Among the guests were two of the Police Commissioners, a Judge of one of the Courts, and other officials. Speeches were made and toasts drank, as if it had been a dinner in honor of some military celebrity. The community is greatly scandalized by the affair.

ONE of the celebrities of Quincy, Fla., is Mr. Tom Nathan, who commenced life as a clown in a traveling circus, and who is now a devout member of the church, and retails dry goods and merchandise on a limited scale. His hair is of snowy whiteness, but he says it became so not in consequence of his years, but in consequence of an alarming accident which befell him during his career in the saw-dust. There was a tiger in the show with which he was connected, and the man who bearded the tiger in his den having on one occasion struck for higher wages, Nathan volunteered to take his place. Boldly he entered the cage, but as soon as he did so, the animal resented the intrusion and seized him by the fleshy part of the body immediately below the small of the back. The fear of being chawed, the pain of the laceration of his flesh, and disappointed ambition combined, blanched his hair in a moment. He went into the cage a fair-haired youth, and was taken out a white headed old man.

BROWN'S VERMIFUGE COMFITS, OR WORM LOZENGES.—Much sickness undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The "VERMIFUGE COMFITS," although effectual in destroying worms, can do no positive injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

Children having worms require immediate attention, as neglect of the trouble often cause prolonged sickness.

Symptoms of worms in children are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making BROWN'S "VERMIFUGE COMFITS" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
Of New York.
ASSETS, OVER
Sixteen Million Dollars.

To meet the choice of such present or future members as may prefer to have the amount insured paid in instalments to their widows or heirs, rather than in one sum, this Company is prepared to insert in its policies a clause agreeing that in lieu of the payment of the policy and profits in one sum, an equitable amount, to be determined by the Company, may be paid annually or semi-annually for any specified number of years (say from five to twenty-five years.)
EXAMPLE.—Suppose a policy of $10,000, with additions amounting to $5,000 more, should become payable by reason of the death of the person insured, the Company, in lieu of the payment of $15,000 in one sum would be able to give (assuming interest as realized in the past) an annuity for ten years or over $2,000 per annum, or for twenty years an annuity of over $1,300 per annum.
This form of annuity will remove the anxiety which may exist in the minds of some policy-holders lest the future provision they have made for their families, should be ineffectual or transitory in its duration, either through unsafe investment, unwise expenditure, or other uncertainties incidental to contingent trusts.
It is not only free from the ordinary dangers of investment, but its punctual and full payment is secured by the large and solid cash resources and good faith of this institution, which thus, to a certain extent, becomes the Guardian or Trustee of the survivors. Hence the provision may be considered, humanly speaking, beyond any adverse contingency.
All such deferred payments or annuities will share equitably in the profits or dividends of the Company.
This Company will also issue SURVIVORSHIP ANNUITIES, which provide for survivors during the whole period of life, and DEFERRED ANNUITIES, by which individuals may provide for themselves in advanced age.

Habeas Corpus Case—A Mother Seeks to Obtain Custody of her Child.

On Monday morning, in the Common Pleas Court, Judge Sterrett heard a habeas corpus case. The writ was issued on the petition of Mrs. Ann E. Merriman, who sought to obtain possession of her child, a little girl of five years, held in custody by John Merriman, petitioner's father-in-law, resident at Sewickley. The facts of the case were: Jacob Merriman, father of the child, was in the army, and for a time during his absence his wife, the petitioner, resided with the respondent. When the father returned from the army he went to housekeeping, but not being able to obtain employment, sold out his household goods, and went to the west, the petitioner resuming labor as a domestic to earn subsistence for herself and the child in question. Previous to going away, her husband gave the child into the custody of his father, the respondent, with the injunction to keep charge of it during his absence. The mother was averse to this arrangement, and after fruitless endeavors to get possession of her child, finally took legal proceedings to accomplish her desire. She alleged that thus far she had maintained her offspring by honest labor, that she had no knowledge where her husband was sojourning, and that the grand parents were not proper persons to have care of the child. For the respondent it was urged that the mother abused the child, and that as she had no permanent place of employment its condition would not be bettered by giving it into her custody. After hearing all the evidence, and remarks of John Barton, Esq., for petitioner, and J. W. F. White, Esq., for respondent, Judge Sterrett decreed that the child should be surrendered to the mother, and be subject to further order of the Court, the grand parents to be allowed the privilege of visiting it at all reasonable times until the matter was finally settled.

Serious Charge—But He Only Kissed Her.

Antoine Derwent was arrested, yesterday, and brought before Justice Miller, charged with attempting to rape a young lady named Mary Shield. It appears that both parties had been to church at Mount Washington, and were returning together to their homes in Scott township. Derwent, being provided with a barouche, invited Miss Shield to accept a seat in the vehicle, which she accordingly did. They engaged in conversation, and were laughing and chatting gaily until they reached a point on the old Washington pike, on the hill immediately above the second toll gate, where, she alleges, Derwent threw his arms around her, and although she struggled hard to free herself, he succeeded in kissing her three or fo r times, after which she made good her escape, by jumping out of the vehicle. The evidence being deemed not to warrant a prosecution for attempt at rape, there being no criminal intent shown, Derwent was discharged. Determined that he should not escape, Mary instituted proceedings against Antoine for assault and battery, and he was therefore held in $300 to answer at court. If all young ladies showed such an aversion to the male embrace, we are of the opinion that lovers would be remarkably scarce.

The Body Found—Coroner's Inquest.

We mentioned yesterday the fact of the finding, on Sunday, of the clothing of a man, together with a sum of money and a bank book, on a flat under the railroad bridge, on the Allegheny river, giving rise to the supposition that the owner had either committed suicide or was accidentally drowned while bathing. The name "John Atkinson" was written in the bank book. On Monday morning the body of a man was discovered floating near the St. Clair street Suspension bridge, and upon investigation it proved to be that of a young man named John Atkinson, nineteen years of age, who was employed at the works of Herron & Co., and who boarded in the Fifth ward. The body was quite dry and no doubt is entertained that it was that of the owner of the clothing found. It was ascertained that he left his boarding place for the purpose of taking a bath in the river, obtaining some soap before leaving, and therefore it is believed he was accidentally drowned. A verdict to that effect was rendered on an inquest held by Coroner Clawson on Monday forenoon. The body was taken charge of by an uncle, the only relative of deceased in the city.

Death of Ex-Alderman Davis.

Another of our oldest and most respected citizens has passed from time to eternity. Joseph G. Davis, Esq., died at his residence on Miller street, in the Sixth ward, at an early hour yesterday morning. He was engaged for a long time in the commercial business, and enjoyed the highest respect and esteem of a very large circle of acquaintances. He was a brother of P. M. Davis, Esq., the well known auctioneer, who died some years since. In his retirement from active business, in consequence of the infirmities of years, he accepted the nomination for Alderman of the Sixth ward, to which office he was elected and served the term of five years, his commission expiring at the commencement of the present year. He had been in bad health for a long time, suffering from heart disease, and was fully sensible that his end was nigh. Paralysis, with which he was seized a few days since, was the immediate cause of his demise. His age was sixty-five years.

Odd Fellows Demonstration at Greensburg.

We are requested by the Committee of Arrangements of Greensburg Lodge, I. O. of O. F., to state that an invitation is extended to the different Lodges of the Third District to attend and participate in an Odd Fellows demonstration at Greensburg, on Thursday, the 12th inst. The officers of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania will be in attendance and will instruct the members in the secret work of the Order. P. G. M., J. Alexander Simpson, Esq., of Philadelphia, will deliver a public lecture at the Court House in the evening. The members composing the Third District will meet at the corner of Canal and Liberty streets, at 7 o'clock A.M., when they will be escorted to the depot of the Pennsylvania Railroad by D. D. G. M., M. Rush, who will accompany them to Greensburg, together with the Grand Officers of Pennsylvania.

"Taken Over."

This head is stereotyped, almost invariably used in announcing the consignment of malefactors to the Penitentiary. Yesterday Sheriff stewart conveyed to that institution, Darby M'Donough, convicted of felonious assault and battery, in shooting Thomas Dougherty; John Walls, convicted of riot and felonious assault and battery; Thomas M'Donald and William M'Cann, convicted of larceny. M'Donough was lately the keeper of a tavern on Wylie street, near the jail, and quite a crowd of his friends and acquaintances assembled to see him depart for the place provided by the State for the incarceration of those who offend the laws. A number of the friends of Walls were also present.

Duprez & Green's Minstrels.—The famous Duprez & Green's Minstrels opened last evening at the Pittsburgh Theatre, to a crowded house. Without a single exception this is the most versatile and talented troupe of minstrels that has ever visited our city. Their performances are of a high class, presenting the audience with a fair idea of true minstrelsy. Charlie Reynolds, Billy West and a host of other talented performers connected with the troupe have not their equals in the world, in the burnt cork profession. The Theatre during the brief engagement of Duprez & Green, will be the center of attraction, and a place of amusement well worthy of a visit.

Shocking Infanticide.—On Friday last a woman named Susan Hughes was arrested at Bolivar, Westmoreland county, charged with killing her infant. The birth took place in an outhouse near Bolivar, on the night previous, and she killed the child by strangling it with oat stalks. After her arrest she made a full confession, but her condition was such that she could not be removed for incarceration, and was therefore left under surveillance. The accused is a widow, her husband having lost his life in the army almost two years since.

Called to Cincinnati.—Rev. Dr. Howard, of this city, was recently called to the First Presbyterian Church of Cincinnati, and was offered a salary of $6,200 at once, with the understanding that it would be increased as speedily as possible to $8,000. His pastorate in Pittsburgh extends over a period of seventeen years, and has been one of uninterrupted success. He is exceedingly popular with his people here, and whether he will conclude to accept the call to Cincinnati is a matter of some doubt.

Remember the Benefit.—To-night, at the Opera House, the charming actresses Ada and Minnie Monk, of the Pittsburgh Theatre, take a benefit. A great bill is offered, many of the most talented favorite actors in the city having volunteered their services. The Misses Monk deserve a crowded house, and we trust it will be accorded them by the amusement-loving community.

A Mistake.—It was officer Mooney, not Mowry, who acted so conspicuous a part in the capture of the river pirates, as mentioned in Saturday's issue. It was owing to officer Mooney's efficiency that the arrests were made, and he therefore should receive due credit.

Will Close at Five O'Clock.—We are requested to state that a number of merchants doing business on Market street, have arranged to close their houses at five o'clock, P. M., in order to allow their employees some recreation during this warm weather.

On a Visit.—Samuel C. Perkins, M. E. G. H. P. of the G. R. H. Chapter of Pennsylvania, was to leave Philadelphia yesterday for this city, accompanied by other officers of the Grand Chapter, for the purpose of visiting the several Chapters here.

A Match between the Alert and Fairplay base ball clubs, the former of Mt. Washington and the latter of Birmingham, on Saturday, resulted in the success of the Alert.

Argument List.—Judge Sterrett, Mellon and Stowe were on the bench yesterday, in the Court of Common Pleas, disposing of the argument list.

Police Refuge.—Henry Mayhew, the young burglar, was committed to the House of Refuge yesterday, by order of Court.

Deaths from Sun Stroke—Two Deaths from Cholera—Relief of the Portland Sufferers.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The thermometer again reached 96 degrees in the city yesterday. Thirty-three cases of sun-stroke were reported, a part occurring on Saturday, and additional to those before mentioned, twenty-seven resulting in death. Copious rains fell last night.

Nearly all the bar-rooms were open yesterday, Superintendent of Police Kennedy having issued orders to make no more arrests for violation of the excise law, the constitutionality of which will be determined by the Court of Appeals.

Two deaths from cholera wree reported yesterday.

A collection was made in Beecher's church yesterday for the Portland sufferers.

George Peabody arrived at Montreal on Saturday. He was warmly welcomed, but waived a public reception. He will remain in Canada about ten days, visiting various points of interest.

A Porto Rico letter says that the slave population is rapidly diminishing by manumission.

The sugar and coffee crops are not more than half the average.

The weather is rather cooler, but the thermometer this morning marks eighty-four. Sky overcast.

Rumored Revolt in Cuba.

BALTIMORE, July 9.—The Sun publishes an account of a rumored revolt in Cuba, brought by the Captain of a steamer which arrived from Havana on the 4th. The revolt is said to have occurred at Porto Principe, the news of which caused intense excitement in Havana.

The authorities at Havana paid no attention to the rumors of the revolt until the news came that a portion of the population had declared for the independence of Cuba and a separation from the Spanish Government. On the first instant a military force consisting of five companies, stationed at Porto Principe, was sent against the insurgents to bring them to order. A fight ensued, in which the Colonel was killed and two other officers mortally wounded, while three companies of Spanish soldiers went over to the insurgents. The latter thus reinforced, and numbering now seven thousand men, proceeded to the mountain region.

The moment this news was known in Havana, three steamers were dispatched with troops to the place of revolt, but before they were fairly on their way, which was on the 3d, the stirring intelligence arrived that four steamers with two thousand troops on board made their appearance near Nuevitas, bearing the Chilian flag, and effected a landing in the vicinity. All the discontented thereupon proceeded to the place of rendezvous, and it was believed that the revolt had its ramifications throughout the whole Island. Among those who have left Porto Principe, were about one thousand negroes, who, it is asserted, were armed by their owners to join the insurgents. The whole affair was looked upon as a general revolution of the natives, to free themselves from the Spanish rule.

From Vera Cruz.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Letters received here from Vera Cruz under date of the 25th of June, from a well informed commercial house, have the following: There are many here who believe that the French expedition will not be withdrawn as announced, for the reason that General Bazaine, who is protecting certain commercial houses who are importing goods in his name without payment of duties, he being interested therein, is using all his influence to delay the departure of the troops. It appears, certain, however, that arrangements have been made with the Transatlantic Company for the transportation of the forces, and that the first steamer for that purpose is daily expected. The late measures of the Imperial Government are extremely severe upon the commerce of this port. The latest tax is in the shape of a license, which obliges each commercial house to pay from one to three thousand dollars per annum for the privilege of doing business.

Letters of American Citizens Opened and Read by Maximilian's Agents.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The Idea Liberals of Puebla, of June 9th, shows that letters from the United States are required to be opened and read at the postoffice by the persons to whom they are addressed, in the presence of Maximilian's agents, who afterwards examine them. Matters considered objectionable are sent to the Imperial Consistory, who submits them to the Court Martial for such disposition as may be thought proper.

The Philadelphia Convention—The South to be Represented.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Southern papers received here to-day exhibit a very general disposition on the part of the people to respond to the call for the Philadelphia Convention. State and district conventions to nominate delegates have been called in Alabama, Georgia, and South Carolina.

MONDAY, July 9, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day were as follows: Gold, 132¼; 1881's, 109; Five Twenties, 105¾; Ten Forties, 98½; Seven Thirties, 103¾; Certificates, 100⅝; Cleveland & Pittsburgh R. R., 89½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago R. R., 97¼; Erie, 71; Western Telegraph, 54.

—The disbursements of currency from the Treasury, and the consequent expansion of the volume of active paper money, is giving new life to the stock market. The general opinion seems to be that Mr. McCulloch would do well to embrace the present opportunity of putting out a funding loan, so that it may be fairly afloat before the active business season, which commences in October, shall find ample employment for all the available currency in the channels of the circulation.

—The following statement exhibits the business of the Pittsburgh Clearing House for the week closing on Saturday, July 7:

	Exchanges.	Balances.
July 2	$358,224 79	$107,782 17
July 3	392,187 39	63,154 47

—More than one-half of the American securities held in Europe are in Russia and Prussia. The gold bulls have a theory that the despotic governments of those countries may seize these bonds and send them home to the United States for the gold when the necessities of war press hard upon them. Such a movement would of course send up gold in this market.

The financial position of Austria, Prussia, and Italy, as stated in the London Statist is as follows: Austria has been rapidly increasing her debt during the last eighteen years, and it now amounts to £240,000,000. She has now a revenue of about £40,000,000, but her interest account is so large that any attempt to maintain her present immense standing army must end in bankruptcy. She has no money supply of importance, principally from Frankfort, Amsterdam, Antwerp, and Brussels, and any failure to meet engagements, will be felt in those places most severely. Prussia has a funded debt of £36,000,000, and her annual expenditures have been about £24,000,000,—only a third as large as France. 500,000 men under arms, is fast assessing all Prussia's savings, and destroying all financial confidence. Prussia paper money is at a discount, and the Prussian Bank has raised the rate to 6 per cent. Italy's debt is now £300,000,000, having been doubled since 1860. Italian Government rentes (stocks) were quoted at 84 in May, 1861—now at 57. Its paper money is at a great discount, and there is no gold in sight at which it can be converted in gold. Italy has also entered into engagements with railroad companies amounting to £2,000,000 a year. The bonds issued in aid of them are far below par.

—Formerly it was held by the decisions of English courts that every man entering into partnership of any kind was responsible to the extent of his entire property for the debts of the partnership. Not long ago English laws were so far altered as to allow the formation of companies on the principle of limited liability of their members. Hence the expression, "limited," at the head of the prospectuses of some of the companies advised in England. The law now permits parties to a company to stipulate by contract, on entering as shareholder, the precise amount for which they are to be held responsible. The old laws were objectional, for they hampered enterprise. The new law is much abused.

New York Money and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The Gold market closed up at 132¼@132⅝. Government securities were firm this afternoon, and the business was large. The Stock market was stronger at the last open Board, especially on Erie. The rise in this stock has been quite marked during the day and the transactions large. This has had an influence upon the entire Railway list, and a general improvement has taken place. There is more animation in bonds and miscellaneous securities, and the tendency is towards higher prices.

Petroleum Stocks—Brevoort, 100; Benechoff Run, 60; United States, 59; do, 62; 85; do, 90; Mingo, 50; Sackett-Drimell, 60; do, 70; Downieville, 61; do, 1-30, 65; do., 63; Keystone Silver, 28; New York Gold, 75; do., 80; Quartz Hill, 50.

BANK STATEMENT.—Loans, $251,531,833; increase, $6,600,955. Specie, $8,983,256; increase, $2,008,983. Circulation, $27,286,580; increase, $43,980. Legal Tender, $49,049,626; decrease, $2,281,602. Deposits, $205,220,611; increase, $1,442,-529.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The Post's money article says: The prominent topic in Wall street to-day, is the large foreign orders for Government securities. The demand from the interior is also active, but the market is not very active at 5 per cent. Little doing in commercial paper. The Stock Market opened with more commotion, with an advance in Government securities and also was the case in Railways, with an upward tendency after the board. Erie sold at 72, Foreign Exchange rather lower, as a large amount of bills are offering, which are drawn against 5.20's.

The Commercial's money article says: The stock market opened buoyant and firm. The speculative interest is well sustained throughout the railroad list, and extends to the miscellaneous stocks. Erie continues firm. The regular transactions at the Stock Exchange Board were 7,000 shares. The speculation in North Western is kept up, the common stock closing at 52 and preferred at 62¾. Rock Island is a fraction higher. The bonds of the United States governments are firm inspite of the decline of 5-20s in London, reported by the Saxonia. There is rather less pressure for money, and the Saturday, call lenders are seeking buyers at 5 per cent., but find it difficult to put out money at that rate, and the present indications appear to point to call loans to four per cent. as the common rate on call loans. For the present the prevailing rate must be quoted at 5 per cent. Discounts are quiet but a little firmer, in consequence of the increased demand for loans at the close of last week. Foreign exchange is quiet but a shade firmer. Private advices by the Saxonia represent that money market on the Continent easier. At London a reduction in bank rate of discount was expected to take place on Thursday, June 28th.

At the four o'clock board to-day, the following were the principal sales: Western Union Telegraph, 54¾; Reading, 94¾; Erie, ex-div., 72¾; Catawissa, 79; Illinois Central, 123½; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 88¾; Cleveland and Toledo, 111¾; Chicago and Rock Island, 90½; Chicago and North-western, 52½; Chicago and Northwestern preferred, 62¾.

Gold closed at 132¾.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, July 9, 1866.

The produce markets continues exceedingly dull and neglected, and there are no indications at present of any immediate improvement. There is an almost entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling, and as the demand for the leading articles is restricted to supplying the immediate wants of the retail trade, we have but very few round lot operations to record.

GRAIN—Wheat continues dull but unchanged at $2,35 for No. 1 Spring. Oats dull and drooping; Sale of 2 cars prime at 52; and 1 do do, at 50. Chicago Oats may be quoted at 48@49. Corn is in good supply and dull; we can report a small of prime shelled at 70½. No movement in Rye or Barley. Buckwheat dull and nominal at $2.

PROVISIONS—Bacon continues very firm, under the influence of the reports from Cincinnati, and prices are still looking up. We now quote at 17 for Shoulders—some holders asking 17½—19¼@20 for Ribbed Sides; and 25 to 25½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull but firmly held at 22¼@22 for steamed and kettle rendered. Mess Pork quiet and unchanged.

FLOUR—There is a fair local demand for Flour, and while the market is very firm, prices are not quotably higher. We continue to quote at $10,50@11,50 for fair to choice Spring Wheat; $12,50 to $13 for Winter Wheat; and $14 to $16 for fancy brands. Rye Flour unchanged.

MILL FEED—Sale of 1 car light Middlings at $1,00; and 1 car prime white do, at $1,70. Bran, Shorts and Seconds remain about as last quoted.

POTATOES—The supply of new crop Potatoes is steading increasing, and we can report a decline of $1 to $1,50 per bbl. Sales were made to-day at $6 to $6,50 per bbl. Old Potatoes are selling at $4 for prime.

EGGS—Dull but nominally unchanged at 18 for fresh packed.

CHEESE—Sales of Western Reserve at 15@16, Limburg at 17@18; and New York Goshen at 20@21.

SEEDS—There is a good demand for Flaxseed at the advance, $3 per bushel.

PIG LEAD—Sale of 500 pigs at 12.

OIL—No. 1 Lard is quoted at $1,85@1,85.

BAY—Is nominal at $20 to $25.

SORGHUM—Is dull at 30 to 35.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, July 9, 1866.

CRUDE—There was apparently a little more inquiry for Crude to-day, at least, the transactions, in the aggregate, were larger than for several days past, but there is no improvement in prices. Quotations may be fairly given at 12 to 12½, bbls returned and in bulk, and 17 to 17½, bbls included, and these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. Sale of 800 bbls, in bulk, on the spot, at 12½; 2500, in bulk, to arrive, at 12½; and 216 at 17½, packages included. The arrivals continue light, and while the supply is limited, the market is dull and weak, nevertheless, and there seems to be no disposition manifested to operate. There is still considerable lying in the hands of parties who are holding it for an advance, but this cannot be regarded as being on the market as it is not being offered for sale.

REFINED—There is no improvement to note in the tone of the market for bonded oil, though there is still more little inquiry, both for present and future delivery, at about former quotations. We can report sales of 250 bbls for October delivery in Philadelphia, at 47 cents; 1000 barrels for November at 44 cents; 500 bbls for December, at 45. For immediate delivery, 38 cents seems to be the ruling figure, and for August 39 to 40 cents. There are no sales for Pittsburgh delivery. Free oil is dull and nominal at 50 to 52, for straw color to light straw to prime white.

ARRIVALS—The receipts of oil continue light, and it is said that there are but very few dealers buying for this market at present. The following arrivals were reported to-day:

Fisher & Bro.,	1238	Mawhinney & Co.,	366
Brewer & Burk...	101	H. McKelvy	1016
Jas. Wilkins	265	* Penna. Salt Co	414
Total			3308

Boston Iron Market.

BOSTON, July 7.—The market for pig iron is rather excited in view of the action of Congress on the tariff question, and prices have further advanced. The duty on pig has been fixed by the House at $10 per ton, which must operate to a great extent as prohibitive. The sales to manufacturers to-day has also been doubled up in an unexampled manner for the benefit of Pennsylvania iron masters. The latter are quite extreme in their views, having no stocks of consequence on hand, and are taking orders ahead only at value. The stocks of South are held rather above the views of buyers; but the necessities of consumers, which that section has advanced rates are effected to some extent.

Scotch pig is firmer, with sales of No. 1, in small lots, at $39@40 per ton for Eglinton and Gartsherrie brands. American is in fair demand and firm, with sales in lots as wanted, at prices ranging from $36@38, for different numbers. Charcoal pig is selling at a range of $45@75 per ton, cash, the extreme rates for Vermont and car wheel iron. Bar iron is active and higher. The sales of English and American at $115@120 per ton for common, and $125@130 for refined. Railroad iron is in demand at $66@68 per ton gold, for English, and $87@90, currency, for American.—Bulletin.

Butter.

CINCINNATI, July 7.—The receipts are only moderate, but they are in excess of the demand, which is mainly local, and the market is dull and heavy, however, have not undergone any change, but the tendency is toward lower figures. We quote prime to choice Central Ohio at 25@27c, and the lower grades 18@ 24c. Western reserve commands higher prices East than here, which is attracting shipments in that direction, and there is very little of it arriving, and not enough doing in it to warrant quotations.

BALTIMORE, July 7.—Receipts and stocks small and but little doing. We quote Western 23@28c, as to quality; some choice held at 30c. Grades are scarce and nominal at 25@28c. Roll we quote at same figure, but little arriving.

Boston Fish Market.

BOSTON, July 7.—The new catch of shore mackerel is now arriving quite freely, and the market is a shade easier than last reported. Old are nearly out of the market. The low rate of Nova Scotia hern in bond, are kept above the views of buyers. We quote new No 2s at $14@15; No. 3s, $12,50@13,50 per bbl. Old No. 1s are mostly nominal at $15,50@20,00 per barrel.

Alewives are firm, with sales of English at $7,50 per bbl, in bond. Pickled herring are dull at $2,50@3,00 per box for common and Labrador. Smoked herring are firm at 55@65 cts per box for No. 1 and scaled. Salmon are nominal at $50 per tierce.

Buffalo Market.

BUFFALO, July 7.—Flour quiet and unchanged. Wheat inactive. Corn quiet and easier; No. 1 sold at 74c; tendency downward. Oats, No. 2 Canada West, sold at 49½@49c; Milwaukee, 47@50c. Barley nominal. Rye held. No. 1 Chicago, 88@90c; No. 2 Milwaukee, $1.00. Whisky nominal. Pork $32,50@33. Lard 21½@22c.

Toledo Market.

TOLEDO, O., July 9.—Flour steady. Wheat dull; transactions limited; old Amber 5c lower; sales at $2,40; new Amber 4c lower; sales at $2,30. Corn ½c lower; sales at 68@69c for No. 1 mixed, 72c for yellow; 67c for No. 1 white, and 69c for No. 2 ditto. Lake freights dull and unchanged.

RIVER NEWS.

The river under the influence of the recent heavy rains rose several inches at this point during Sunday night and yesterday forenoon, but last evening it was about stationary, with two feet in the channel in the channel by the pier marks. The weather yesterday was cloudy and unsettled, with an occasional sprinkling of rain.

There has been no arrivals or departures since our last report, aside from the regular packets. The Leni Leoti is due here from Parkersburg this morning, and the Fayette and Chieftan will leave for Brownsville and Geneva this evening at 5 o'clock.

The Nora, Capt. H. H. Devinney, is filling up steadily for Cincinnati and Louisville, and will be ready to take her departure this evening. Being a low water boat, the Nora will be able to go through without difficulty, and passengers and shippers should bear this fact in mind.

Capt. Sam Shuman, who has been rusticating up about Brownsville for some days past, is in the city at present. Capt. Sam takes a lively interest in the "Peoples Line" plying between here and Brownsville in opposition to the "Union Line," doing all he can to advance the interests of the boats and stockholders.

The "Union Line" have employed Captain Sam Evans as passenger agent, and that he is working faithfully for his employers is evident to all who are about the Monongahela wharf during the afternoon. The competition between the two opposing lines is becoming quite spirited, and crowds of spectators congregate about the landing almost daily to witness the departure of the rival boats.

The St. Louis Democrat, of Saturday, contains the following interesting details in regard to the Rocky Mountain steamers:

It rumor be correct—it seldom is in any instance—the Upper Missouri river trade has proved this year for the steamboats quite as fortunate as to be engaged in it as rich as that which made celebrated the argosies of an ancient Greece. The amounts at last year realized by some of those Rocky Mountain steamers which have returned are, according to common rumor, as follows: St. Johns, not including a considerable sum for carrying troops, $17,000; Mollie Dozier, $20,000; Tacony, $16,000; W. J. Lewis, $40,000; Deer Lodge, $70,000; Peter Balen, trip of ninety-six days, $65,000; Only Chance and Gold Finch, profits not ascertained. Those indefatigable citizens, M. S. Mehan & Bro., are said to have gained a cool one hundred thousand from the voyages of their three steamers, Peter Balen, Golden Finch and Iron City. Those who, like us, are constantly among boatmen, hear many regrets uttered by owners of boats that they did not "load for the mountains." There will be a larger number of boats announced next year for the gold regions of the Upper Missouri than ever before. It is believed that the attraction for freight and passengers will be so active that rates will be very low, and many of the boats will lose money. Last year there has been the most favorable season ever experienced for the voyage, in the matter of water. There were but few accidents to the large fleet which left this city, and in a few days the crowded boatmen, previously exposed constantly to the weather, gains flesh, and becomes dark as an Indian. This season the St. Johns was the only boat to reach Fort Benton, just about one hour ahead of the Deer Lodge. Captain Pat. Yore, commanding the latter, lost a suit of clothes on the run, as a result of that race. After writing the above, we met a cautious old boatman, the owner of one of the fortunate boats of the Mountain fleet, and asked him if he knew what were the profits of any of the voyagers. "Oh," says he, "that's not fit for the papers, but you might say from ten thousand to forty thousand dollars each boat." He could have said more, but didn't.

The Arabian left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday. The Commercial of Sunday says: A portion of the Arabian's cargo consists of 1500 sacks of wheat and 1200 empty barrels. The Arabian also had a hull of some new boat building at Steubenville. Capt. Jas. W. Batchelor, of the Franklin Insurance Company, left for Pittsburgh in yesterday morning's train, with his family, to rusticate.
